PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS

OF ST. CASIMIR HIGH SCHOOL

DETROIT, MICHIGAN

Foreword

THE TIME has now come for us as graduates to step across the threshold of school life into a World of PEACE. PEACE! It's a tremendous word. One that has stood for sacrifices and bloodshed, sorrows and losses. Now, after years of fighting we trust that peace and satisfaction shall be ours in the World of Tomorrow. The same inner peace and satisfaction comes from the knowledge that for four years we have been trained for just such a step as we are now taking. When one carries peace within one's self—to pass it on to others is not too difficult a task.

AS YOU glance through these pages of our treasure chest of memories, we trust that the ideals and high principles of truth and consideration for others, which were ever deeply inculcated in all our classes will be evident to you.

THUS WE leave St. Casimir School to begin our life in that World of Tomorrow. We know that by carrying these ideals and principles with us, we feel assured that it will be one of Peace!

The Envoys of Good Will

DR. STANLEY J. PONIATOWSKI, whose keen interest in promoting intellectual attainment has ever been remarkable, donates annually two senior scholarships to our school. Through his efforts and sacrifice, a capable, ambitious sophomore and a junior have the good fortune of this benefit with all scholastic expenses paid by this professional man of dentistry.

THE ST. CASIMIR ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, under the efficient directorship of Rev. V. Szymanski has enlarged its scholarship contributions. The two offered in previous years will be increased as determined by the organization.

TWO OTHER SCHOLARSHIPS are given from the parish through the generosity and favor of Rev. E. Maisel, Pastor.

TO ALL THESE scholastic benefactors, we students bow in respect and hearty appreciation.

Classes

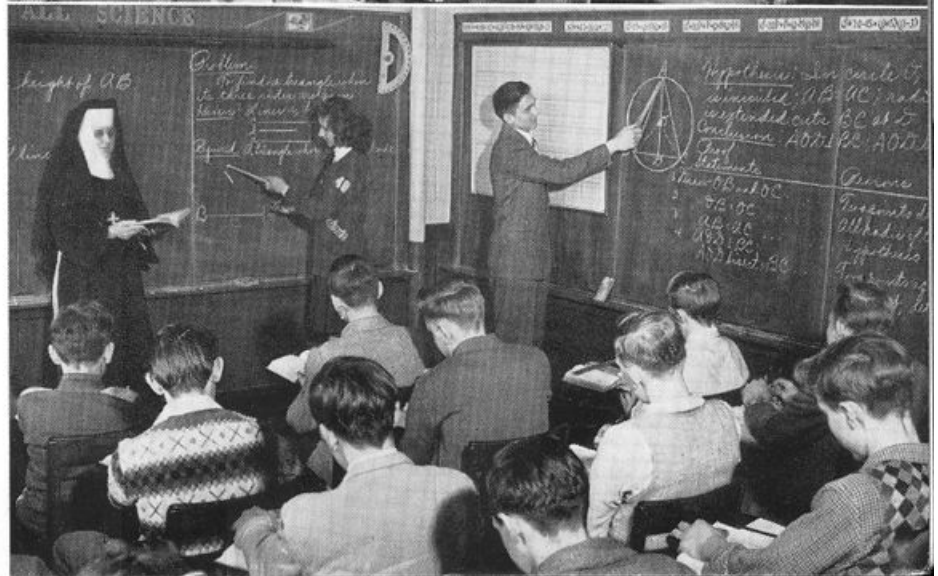

To the right we find a group of students engrossed in the ADVANCED ALGEBRA formulae which hold a fascination of their own. The MATH classes where we train in exactness and reason have zoomed high in the last few years. The desirable qualities and skills learned are useful not only in the field of Mathematics, but are coming more and more to be known as the prime requisites of a good citizen.

In the PHYSICS and CHEMISTRY classes we learn truth from reasoning and observation. Here we find P. Kwiatkowski performing an experiment while G. Potochick and J. Turowski observe and record results.

The intrigues of GEOMETRIC constructions and logical proof developments hold fast the interest of the Sophomores.

Through the study of RELIGION we learn to love God and recognize His Omnipotence and HOLY WILL which perpetually governs the universe.

In the study of HISTORY with its many opportunities for varied and interesting discussions, we learn to face the world with an understanding and love of our neighbor.

ENGLISH, is a most valuable asset to every student, since a mastery of English is truly a mastery of one's self.

Classes

In this picture we see a group of future potential stenographers in their shorthand class. In the commercial subjects we learn thoughtfulness of others. The buzzing sound of these classes where we acquire practical experience can be heard the day long.

In the GENERAL SCIENCE classes, where the seeds of truth are planted the Freshmen learn the basic principles of scientific study.

The study of languages helps us in the understanding of others. A knowledge of the LATIN language in particular is a stepping stone to a great variety of tongues especially—the English.

The Lure of the Prom

Maytime comes with a gay time at the Senior promenade—an ecstasy of colorful harmony and soothing melody.

We danced to the sweet music of Johnny Sad-rack and his Orchestra, and were enthralled with the dream-like atmosphere that filled the Spanish Ballroom of the Fort Shelby Hotel. Our evening was one of glamour and gayety. As the last strains of music die away they blend into a tender memory . . . of a night of unconfined joy that so delightfully serves as an overture to the great promenade to come—that promenade into the future.

We Pledge Fidelity

Joan Kaminski the class secretary happily accepts her ring.

Father Dominas, the guest of honor and toastmaster anxiously scrutinizes the program as the other class officers cheerfully look on.

Earl Gapa, the high school president, proudly extends his hand as Father, pronouncing the pledge form, slips the coveted treasure upon his finger.

One of the most cherished events of the Senior year was the Ring Day reception—the perfect arrangements for which were planned and carried out most successfully by the Juniors.

In the heart of each senior here, there was a smile, a wish, a tear—as Father Szymanski officiated at the presentation.

The Favorite Hour

Shortly after the inauguration of the '46-'47 Student Council a problem arose, confronting the Council with a most difficult situation.

The cold months were approaching rapidly, and during this period, the use of our only recreational facility, the outdoors, was both improbable and impractical. Faced with this situation the Council set to work. The only conclusions to be drawn were first to provide a reliable substitute for the facilities we did not have; and secondly to promote student interest in a harmonious program of activity to the extent where the lack of facilities would not be noticed.

From its perplexed but hard-working group the S.C. contrived a Recreation Organization. The first problem was solved when the auditorium was secured as a means of providing recreational facilities for indoor activity. The second problem was solved when a program, involving everything from games to dancing and basketball, was prepared, some of which are portrayed in above pictures.

During the winter months the auditorium was the scene of high interest. Following a systematic arrangement, each Tuesday and Wednesday was reserved for games such as cards, checkers, ping-pong and even fiddlesticks.

On Thursday and Friday an organized student group conducted exhibitional and community dancing, and before long a newly developed concern for the art had been developed. With the dawn of the regular basketball season, a system for conducting Boys' and Girls' Intra-Mural basketball was set up.

With the conclusion of the Basketball Season, interest in recreation activities, though not expected to fall off too considerably, had to be revived. Naturally a varied course of activity is much more appealing, and with the cold weather subsiding more outdoor facilities were provided. Taking advantage of this the Department established a working agreement with the Faculty to provide for a volleyball team. The game progressed exceptionally well, giving climax to a varied healthful outdoor and indoor recreational activities program.

Chronicles of School Life

The past year has been one of momentous happenings; a year truly to be remembered.

The 1947 Casmirecho, a chronicle of St. Casimir High School, its students, activities and achievements of the year, has had a super edition. The staff (above) tireless and cooperative carefully planned and produced all details which crystallized into attractively completed pages. Its outstanding members were: F. Kociemba, M. J. Kaminski, artist, and E. Olson (circular insets).

The Casmirette now in its eleventh year of publication comes to us as a neat printed copy. Not many people outside the actual staff (upper left) know the hard work and long hours required to publish the school news. Yet, the only reward the members ask is that the students enjoy the paper. J. Popowski, the editor-in-chief has piloted the Casmirette staff through another successful year. With the departure of Sr. M. Emmanuel who has been elected Supervisor of Schools conducted by the Felician Sisters, the Casmirette is in the efficient hands of Sr. M. Benvenuta as moderator.

An intensive subscription campaign was put over successfully in the early part of the year. The drive began with a rally in the auditorium with B. Bartkowiak as master-of-ceremonies. Among the variety of numbers presented, a few are portrayed by the pictures in the lower left. After several musical renditions, the Barber Shop Quartette held the assembly in high spirit with their vocal renditions. I Widuta and T. Brodzinski besides waltzing interpreted the Russian Ballet. M. A. Kumor and A. Wojcik, J. DuBorgel and L. Zapinski joined in with fanciful styles of melody. With H. Klebanowski as his charge and the Casmirette as his part, E. Gapa dramatically recited a poem of his original composition. Indeed, the response in ads and subscriptions was gratifying.

The School publications have served as an important factor for promoting student activities as well as recording successfully the life of St. Casimir High School.

SENIORS PRESENT

"Hats Off"

On February 15th and 16th the graduating class of 1947, in collaboration with the Choral Club and the orchestra presented the operetta "HATS OFF." The story concerns itself with the Father of the American Navy, John Paul Jones (F. Kociemba) and the adventures of his crew of the "Ranger" while it was docked at port near Dame Bly's (A. Leszczewicz) hospitable Mermaid Inn during the stirring days of 1777.

The ship's crew is ever vigilant for plots against their hero-commander and soon discover that Captain Landais (R. Swinkowski), a renegade ship captain, and his accomplice Boodle (J. Hill) are plotting to secure the Ranger for themselves.

Lt. Richard Dale (E. Gapa), his fiancée Marion (L. Zapinski), William Courtleigh (A. Kobierzynski), his sister Anne (J. Du Borgel) and Red Jerry (B. Rosinski) add historical color, while the crew, joined by the chorus of singers and dancers, blend beautifully in effecting the hectic days of the Revolutionary War.

The story ends with Landais discredited, John Paul Jones receiving letters and tokens of appreciation from all over the world, and the assurance that the United States Navy will achieve greater and greater triumph with the spirit of John Paul Jones ever watchful over its gallant men.

Clubs

Trusting in Mary the Queen of Peace to guide our steps, the B.V.M. Sodality under the competent direction of Sr. M. Ann has carried out a successful program of activities this year. The most prominent of these was the Vocation Project. The two pictures below show the various vocations portrayed in an attractive stage skit given by the girls.

Here we find our Catholic Students Mission Crusade Officers—R. Grzywacz, J. DuBorgel, and G. Baker—at their stupendous job of collecting cancelled stamps, foil, and other items to help alleviate the sad plight of the destitute in the foreign missions. Little Freddie Kijewski of the First grade beams with joy as Geraldine relieves him of his load.

Sr. M. Arnold has directed the functions of our unit in the past two years most efficiently.

In the lower right we find three of our melody makers—J. Landry, J. Wisniewski, and B. Okray, tootin'—drummin'—and squeezin'—their way as they cheerfully render their services for the many programs and assemblies.

The Marvels of Science

One afternoon in January our assembly heard atoms splitting off Uranium, or just the rays splitting off. We saw an egg cooked in a skillet that was put over a paper napkin on top of a cold stove. The napkin wasn't even singed. We saw a peanut-sized light bulb give off light one-fifth the brilliancy of the sun. These and many other miracles of modern science we witnessed in a new and startling stage demonstration of the scientific achievements from the research laboratories of the General Motors Corporation.

In the above spectacular experiment Mr. Hayes and Mr. Herron, directors of the exhibit, manufacture butyl rubber. The reaction takes place through the skillful juggling of carbon and hydrogen molecules spurred on by the catalyst—Boron trifluoride.

In here we see our Library service club headed by Pauline Piontek charging, checking, organizing, etc., various items.

Our senior, Eleanore Olson, hears her voice recorded on the replica of Edison's first phonograph.

Varsity Hoopsters

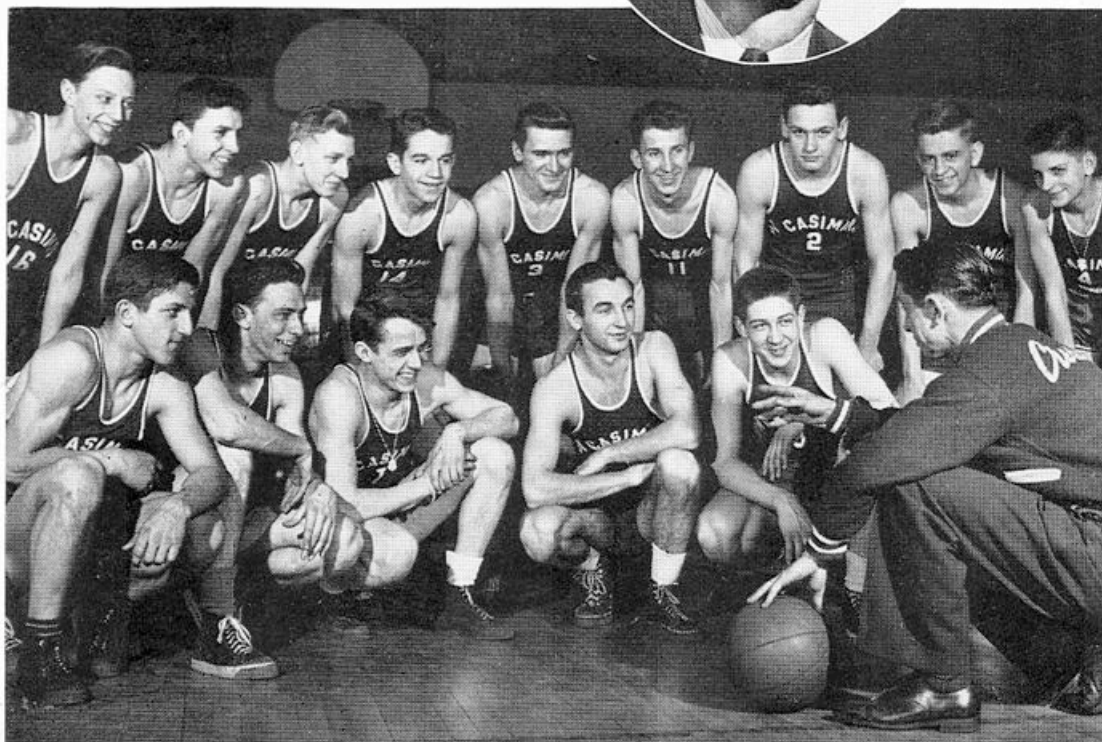

Under the watchful guidance of Coach Tony Zientarski, the Crescents began to take shape early in November for the start of a strenuous campaign. A sixth place rating in a power-laden Catholic League was the result of this season's labors. The total season's reward was six victories and nine defeats.

A note of thank is in order for the Rev. V. Szymanski, the athletic director. His helpful hints and words of encouragement were always appreciated. The trustworthy position of student manager was capably handled by Benny Bartkowiak and his helper Joe Nalepa. The season marked the end of competition for five seniors and saw the nucleus of a fine team taking shape.

Fighting Crescents in Action

Heated action was always in full power, as our cagers gave their utmost in every game and every play. In the picture (upper left) we see Earl Gapa (12) caught capturing a rebound from the background while Art Kobierzynski (7) stands close by ready to assist. It required just such skill and cooperation to enable St. Casimir's to come off the court that night with a 36-31 victory. The other (lower) portrays J. Banaszak (5) leaping up to "tap in a rebound." F. Kociemba (1) always in the thick of the fray is also in the air, while E. Gapa (12) and W. Kempinski (10) are in position to scoop up a loose ball and score.

"We may not win every time, but we will make any team fight hard to defeat us." That's the type of sportsmanship we practice here.

When these five heads (circular inset) get together there is trouble brewing for the opponents. They are:

Frank Kociemba who has three years to his credit. Playing great ball all through the season he is one of the leading scorers.

Wallace Kempinski who has more luck than brains is the high man on the team. Art Kobierzynski, the Captain of the team, has his fourth year coming to a close this season.

The keen-minded Earl Gapa is the fourth man in this whirlwind combination. He is a smooth ball handler and an excellent faker.

John Banaszak an import from New York, is what you would call a "Hot Rock."

Rah!

Rah!

Rah!

We give you our cheerleading section in the swing of a strong yell. These highflyers are always on their toes to bring that crowd to the big game. The traditional uniform advertises the school colors, red and white. It's a sharp entrance when the team of cheerleaders invade a hostile court. Through original contributions they aim to build up their repertoire and lead the Crescents to victory. Caught in mid-air by the camera are E. Olson and T. Brodzinski, co-captains for the squad.

Student Council

After functioning for a number of years on a more or less improvised program of activity, the Student Council of St. Casimir, according to its advisory head, took steps toward raising the status of Student Government in cooperation with the High School Administration.

The sponsorship of the N.A.S.C. (National Association of Student Councils) was applied for and accepted; simultaneously, the sixteenth annual election was held and the new officers were chosen to lead in a revised system of student cooperation in school management, the essential fundamental of an adequate school program. The officers elected were: Earl Gapa, President; Stanley Wojciechowski, Vice-President; Grace Kaminski, Secretary; Sylvester Rumps, Treasurer; and Ted Ozog, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The campaign was climaxed with the first General Assembly, at which the President and his administrative colleagues were sworn. After the oath of office, Sister M. Hugolina, Principal, handed over the gavel, symbol of leadership, responsibility, and administration, to the President (upper picture). With the first striking of the gavel until the termination of his office Earl Gapa has ever proved a capable and proficient leader adroitly commanding and guiding the activities of his group. A sterling character, tact and sound judgment, as well as a good command of language and a knowledge of Parliamentary rules governed every executive function entrusted upon him.

The S.C. convened for the first time on September 18, 1946, where, in launching the year of '46-47 for the S.C., the President sternly stressed the study of Student Council Activities by its members, that they may establish an effective functioning organization, a staunch defender of the guiding principles of the high school.

Among the many projects undertaken by the S.C. was a Recreation Department, at the head of which was F. Kociemba, his Secretary E. Olson, and Treasurer S. Rumps (lower left—p. 33). The Recreation Department program was a problem, dealing at first with the acquisition of further recreational facilities and equipment. With but a few days of letdown shortly after the program was launched a rousing enthusiastic group replied, and even now the interest is high. Success, the ultimate goal, has been fully achieved.

The most important group organized throughout the year was the Student Patrol, headed by the aggressive mighty-mite Sergeant-at-Arms, Ted Ozog. A coordinated system of patrol of the halls by monitors, carrying out simple but definite traffic regulations was found to be the best method of handling traffic congestion caused by students. This plan was adopted and followed throughout the year and was a main factor in helping to relieve the burden of the Faculty, among the other things.

The Constitution of the Athletic Board (upper p. 33) was probed and a new system was set up. With the Student Manager and Varsity Captain as Co-Chairmen, a smooth-working efficient athletic board was soon established.

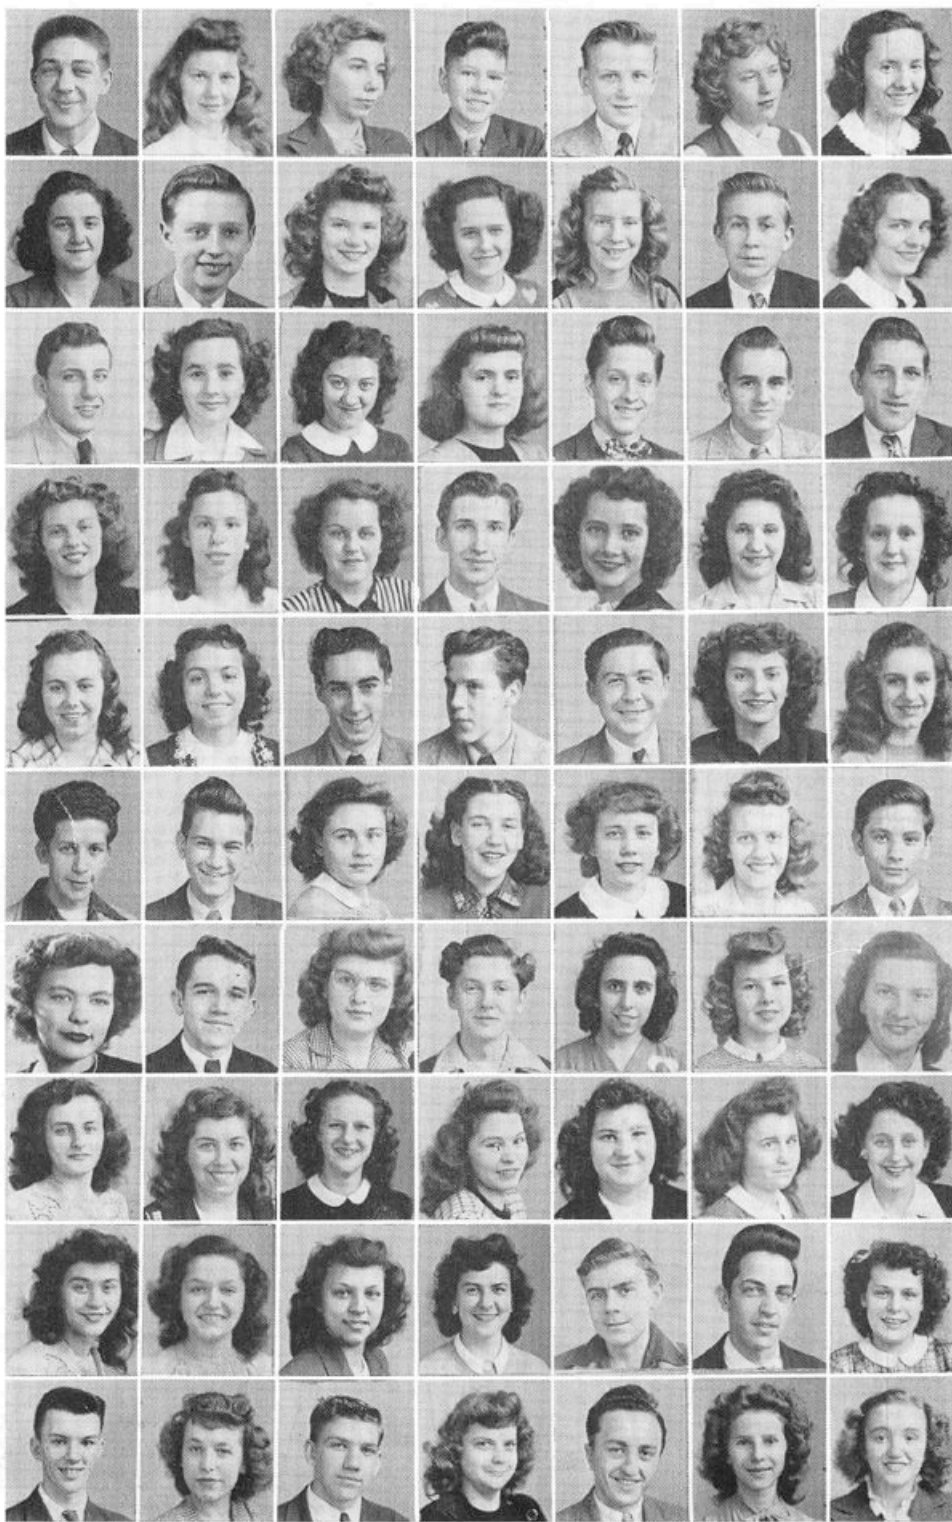

Cooperation is the very life and blood of a Student Council, and the St. Casimir S.C. should be very healthy, for every letdown or success was accepted by all as a working unit.

The co-ordinated efforts of the S.C. members and Faculty helped to secure successful student participation in school management, and in a few years many of those who helped make it so will be the foremost citizens of this great nation.

Scholastic Honors

Perhaps you wonder why a full page is devoted to the stars pictured here. This place of distinction has been reserved for a small group of seniors who spurred on with an intellectual vitality have earned the "Magna Cum Laude" and "Cum Laude" standings. The foremost of these is attained by a student who merits the honor roll throughout the four years; the second, by one who merits it three years including the senior year.

Lord, make us instruments of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is despair, hope.

—St. Francis of Assisi

WE ARE NOW NO LONGER SENIORS, no longer a part of that which we love. We take another step higher in our lives as citizens in a world of tomorrow. With the training which we received through our past years we will do our part to assure all with whom we come in contact, that it truly may be a peaceful tomorrow.

. . . Sponsors . . .

To the SPONSORS and PATRONS who help us make this book worthy of the school it represents we extend our sincere thanks.
